Member of the Cabal. Enigmatic, Power suited Amazonian high-flyer. She runs the Strahov Psychiatric Institute and the Beneath the suit, her skin is a patchwork of scars from her own experimental procedures. She has developed the Cabal's only successful rejuvenation techniques to date.

A vain individual who is quite willing to undergo as much cosmetic surgery as it takes to keep a young looking complexion. She works in a maze of isolated clinical chambers deep within the medical wing of the Strahov complex. One private obsession of hers is the successful construction of a Golem, a super-slave based on the Prague myth.
